FOREWORD

Passage of time constantly brings change. A few years ago clothing, buildings, punishment, and activities were very different from those of today; yet the basic things remain the same, as in an hourglass the position of the sand is always changing, though the sand continues to be the same year after year.

This year the Oracle Staff by reminding the readers of earlier days hopes to awaken each person to our changing times and the advancements being made today in every field. Perhaps some day, this present year of 1962 and '63, presented here in the pages that follow, will also be only a memory of the past. As times change, progress is inevitable.

IN MEMORIAM

In recognition of his twenty-one years of unwavering and devoted service, the Oracle Staff with deepest affection offers the '63 yearbook in memory of William F. Stong. His classes, friends, and the Square Dance Club, for which he was the enthusiastic sponsor, have appreciated the friendliness and sincerity of "Uncle Dudley" in the memorable years he spent at C.H.S.

Barb,
 Always

 fun you had with him!
 Well, I had fun in the future to a real

Though a photograph of the Lamberton Building may seem incongruous in a Senior High Yearbook, the picture serves well to remind us of the passing of time, for only seven short years ago this building was the Senior High School for Carlisle students. As the years pass, new buildings are erected, remodeled, or restored, sometimes returning buildings to an earlier appearance just as styles of dress sometimes repeat themselves through the years.

World and local current events, too, show the progress of time. As the hourglass turns, history continues to be made. Here in the pages that follow is Carlisle High School today, in today's world, a world of change and progress.

Barb,
 Best wishes and good luck in the future. Have fun and always remain the nice, cute girl you are, and never forget Camp Michaux. See you in Chambersburg
 some time! Bill Hall

Barb,
 To a real sweet girl - never forget the fun we have always had. Especially this week at camp (forget the cold weather). Funny thing
 I moved to Shippensburg,
 but!!! you must come visit me many times, and we'll go see it!!! Must see it!
 of luck and best wishes!
 Stay happy & smile!
 Always,

HONORS ALSO COME

One of Carlisle High's graduates, Richard Eckert, center, received the honor of being selected as First Captain of West Point Military Academy.

Shown here in its earlier stages, this one million dollar girls' dormitory at Dickinson College is scheduled for completion in time for the fall of '63.

CONSTRUCTION AND DESTRUCTION

Million Dollar Fire Destroys Large Stores

Burglary and arson were believed the cause of the fire which on December 9 completely leveled the large Bowman & Co. Store and the adjoining McCrory's. Several apartments in the Kronenberg Building were gutted, and both Kronenberg's and Cochran & Allen's stores were damaged in the midnight blaze which firemen fought for about ten hours.

EVENTS ARE BOTH TRAGIC

Ronald Egolf, a ten year old attending fifth grade at Stevens Elementary School, was selected to appear at the Russian Bolshoi Ballet in New York in September.

Blue Mountain Hotel, which once stood on this spot, was completely demolished in the tragic explosion that occurred early in September, resulting in the death of two people.

AND ENJOYABLE

At the annual Carlisle Fair on August 15, Connie Worley was crowned Miss Carlisle Fair by Miss Mary Lou Walters, last year's queen. Both girls are graduates of Carlisle Senior High School.

Gene Evans, 13 year basketball coach for Carlisle High, was selected as head coach for Bucknell University this year.

Congratulating Clarence Smith, who was the first band leader at C. H. S., are Henry Nelson, band director at Junior High, and Ray Spangler, band leader at Boiling Springs. Mr. Smith observed his 80th birthday at a party following a town band practice on September 10.

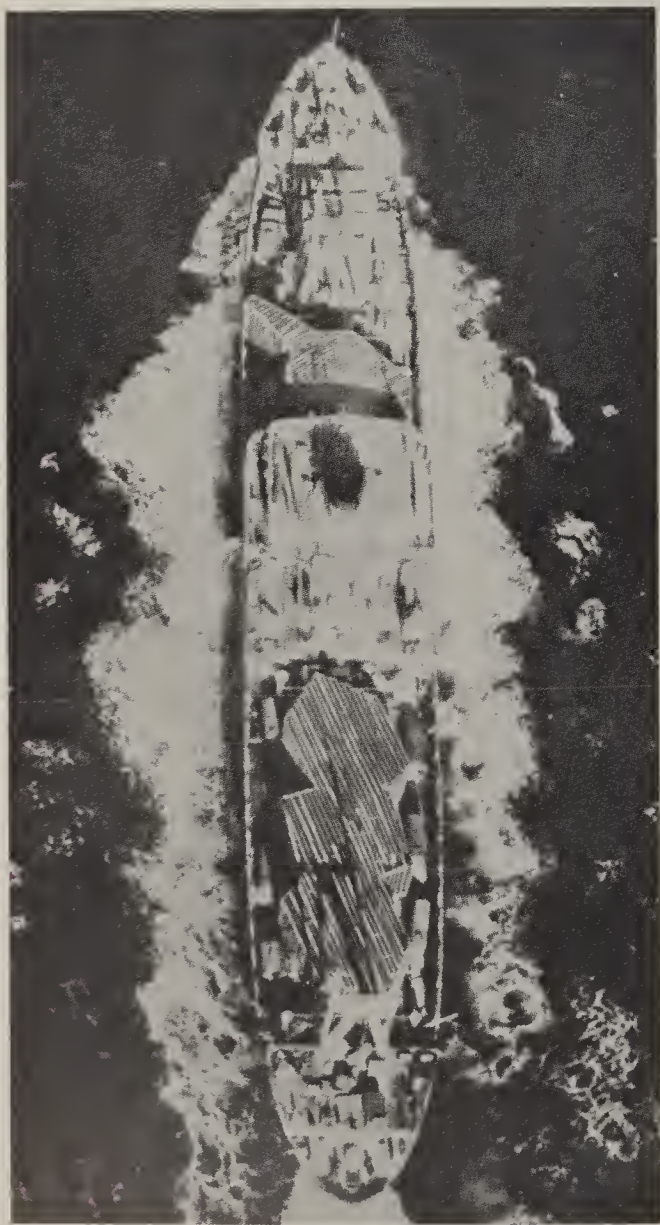

The dedication of the new Bellaire School, which was built in order to accommodate more Carlisle Area pupils, was held on October 23, 1962.

Compliments of Bell Telephone Laboratories Telstar, which American Telephone and Telegraph developed at a reported cost of fifty million dollars, is now at work broadcasting from France and England.

FADS SEEN AT C.H.S.

Fashionable bloomers add to the fun on the trampoline for Barb Smith, Sue Barrett, and Judy Hemenway.

"How low can you go?" asks Ruth Myers of Jay Klauber as Dick Suter and Barb Dutrey adjust the limbo stick.

Checking to see that all strays are hidden in her wig hat, Jeannie Bixler consults her compact.

Although styles of uniforms may change, physical activity has always been prevalent in student life either as a school activity or for personal recreation.

Just as the sand of the hourglass goes on forever, enthusiasm for swimming, football, basketball, wrestling, track, and baseball will always continue in student life.

C.H.S. for many years has had A-1 teams in sportsmanship and ability; and while the sands of time fall, this reputation will continue to prevail.

George Bowen and the Thundering Herd Baseball Team got the jump on league rivals and continued through the schedule in a winning fashion to take the second West Shore League Conference in the past two years and finish with a 10-2 overall record. The Herd accomplished a fine season on the hard work of such players as DeBolt, Snyder, and Boomershine. They started with a rush, winning their first five games, and closed the last game of the season with a similar winning drive taking five of the last seven games. Good pitching was the Herd's strong point, making scoring a hard task for the opposition. Team drive and a great competitive spirit made every Carlisle game an exciting one as they made their bid for another title. Next year the Herd will have to round out their pitching and hitting as they try for their third title in a row.

As the Carlisle Junior Herd finished their season with a 3-4 record, they also gained the important experience needed to step up to the varsity. The Junior Herd beat all their rivals except Cedar Cliff, which makes their record sound better than it really looks. There were six ninth graders on the team who will certainly turn in better jobs in later years. Their strong finish against Cumberland Valley and Camp Hill may be a sample of what to expect next year.

The Carlisle Track Team under the able leadership of head coach, Stan Morgan, and assistant coach, Bill Nickey, nixed all chances of there being any other champion in the South Penn Area, as they ran a perfect season and copped many extra honors, winning the last South Penn Conference Title offered to the School.

During the season Guy Hagerty and Jim Widdecke were stand-outs, as they compiled many points for the Herd. Widdecke's best put was 54 feet 1½ inches, while Haggerty vaulted 12 feet 6½ inches, both qualifying for the state finals. The high spot of the season came when the Herd beat out Chambersburg by a slim margin to win the Conference meet at Gettysburg. Carlisle won second place honors in the Shippensburg invitational meet in which many good schools competed. This record-breaking style of Herd participants made the meets always interesting.

After accurate measuring, the judges announced Guy Hagerty's polevault record of 12' 6½".

THREE CHOSEN FOR ALL-STAR TEAM

In Coach Carol Swaltek's second year, the varsity hockey team posted its best record: 2 wins, 1 lose, and 6 ties, to win fourth place in the Lower Susquehanna Conference. Their lone defeat came at the hands of East Pennsboro in the last game of the season. Under Captain Mimi Eckert, the team played consistently. The scoring was divided evenly: Vicki Swartz had 3 goals; Joan Spangler, 2; Messee Ryesky, 2; Lana Darhower, 2; and Jackie Coyne and Betty Smith, 1 goal each. The goalie, Doris Cleaver, had 30 saves.

Three members of this year's team were selected to play in the All-Star Tournament. They were: Mimi Eckert, Doris Cleaver, and Diane Snyder. Their selection came after their twelve-team league split into two divisions. Each team played the teams in its division and the better players in each division played against each other.

FIRST INDEPENDENT YEAR

Albie Owens and Ken Swanger combine to prevent a runner from gaining ground.

Led by Ken Miller and his "brain trust," Stan Morgan, Dave Heckler, Bill Nickey, and Bill Woods, Carlisle had another spectacular season, beginning with shut-out victories over Shippensburg and John Harris in scrimmage.

After battling without a defeat through two-fifths of its first independent year, the Herd met powerful Central Dauphin, who in a tenuous defensive battle edged Carlisle by a score of 6-0. Directly following the C.D. game, Carlisle bounced back to beat the Mountaineers of Hazleton, a strong representative of the coal region, 24-0. After thundering over the Eagles of Cumberland Valley and the C.D. East Panthers for its sixth and seventh wins, Carlisle went down in defeat in a hard luck 20-19 battle in rain and mud at Chambersburg. Carlisle wound up its last game of the campaign with a 20-7 win in the 43rd annual meeting with Mechanicsburg. The victory was a tribute to head coach Ken Millen who added one more victory to his 222 total win record at Carlisle.

J.V.'s HAVE UNBEATEN SEASON

George Bowen and James Bower's unbeaten Junior Varsity Team ended its 1963 football campaign with a perfect record of 8-0.

Led by Karl Gustafuson, the Junior Herd had a grinding offensive ground attack. It could also strike through the air lanes, as quarterback Forest Bowermaster frequently connected with end Denny Shank. The Baby Herd also proved to have a potent defensive unit, for only 14 points were scored against it in its eight game season, contrasted to the 147 totaled against the opposition. In rain or shine, and it was raining frequently, the J.V.'s played tireless football, always proving fatal, even to a team such as Cedar Cliff, which in the past years has usually beaten the Junior Herd.

Next year, many of these players will fill the gaps left by the 20 seniors lost from the varsity team through graduation.

Carlisle opened its season with a 34-14 win over East Pennsboro in a non-league match. Carlisle's first league victory came over John Harris 45-9, when the first seven matches were won by pins. The increased interest in wrestling is noticeable by the turnout of candidates and the attendance and enthusiasm at home matches in Carlisle. The outstanding J.V. record points to a good year in '64.

Heavyweight Don Eppley is seconds away from a pin over his luckless opponent.

Albie Owens sails through three defenders en route to the basket.

Leaping high, Dick Fiss gets off a jump shot to score against Hershey.

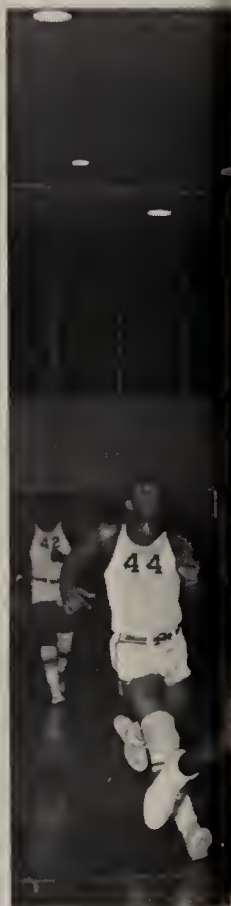

As the ball came down, C.V. players found that Larry Sharp held the magnet.

HERD CAPTURES 15 OF 22 CONTESTS

After tying up a player for a toss, Bill Thumma wins the tap.

John Stull gets off an easy one-hander.

Fast-breaking for the basket and leaping out of danger, Mike Sexton lays one up against Columbia's Crimson Tide.

Bill Thumma outmaneuvers Colston of Middletown to score the first points of the game. The picture below indicates a thrilled Carlisle crowd during the last minute of play, as the Herd overcame a Middletown lead and moved close to victory; but, a minute later, the tables were turned, and Carlisle lost the contest 55 to 53.

J. V.'s HAVE GOOD SEASON

With half the season gone, the J.V.'s held a record of 9-2, as the new J.V. coach, James Bowers, and his team seemed well on their way to a good season. This year's club had good height and played a fast game of ball. The starting line up varied, but Crum, Fisher, Gustafson, Emerson, and Captain Heishman were the top prospects.

At the end of the season the record stood 15-7, which, with the players doing a little extra work during the off season, should be an auspicious sign as these boys prepare for future varsity chores.

Karl Gustafson hits the scoring column in J.V. tilt with John Harris.

Taking aim, Bob Finkey scores with a jump shot against Middletown.

With a clear shot inside the key, Jim Crum makes a goal.

A YEAR OF FIRSTS

After the loss of last season's complete starting quintet plus Gene Evans, Dave Heckler was chosen to take over the reins as head coach of basketball. He used a solid group of veterans, and often fielded an all-senior unit. The Herd lost a pair of heart-breakers to York Catholic by three points and to Middletown by two, and came through the year with a record of 15 wins and 7 losses.

Returning with experience from last year's 23-1 club, were seniors John Albright, Bill Owens, Bill Thumma, and John Stull. More senior help was given by two good Army Post additions, Dick Fiss and Mike Sexton, and another senior, 6-3 Larry Sharp, who made a good bid for the pivot job.

Newcomers on the bench were Soph Mike Kazar, Juniors Jeff Graham, Denny Shank, and Albie Owens, who started frequently.

The club had speed and depth and proved hard to overpower. A rugged schedule called for games with Kutztown, Columbia, Chambersburg, and John Harris. The Herd used a man-to-man defense with a press. Since the South Penn Conference had been disbanded, the squad could not seek a conference title but set its sights on post-season action, competing against Wm. Penn at Hershey on March 6 in District 3 Playoff.

At C.V., Mike Sexton and Bill Thumma are in there fighting as the ball bobbles from hand to hand.

Larry Sharp, Carlisle's tallest man, taps one in during the home C.V. game.

Although bagged up in a corner, Thumma gets off a shot against Hershey.

Cars today may differ from some of the first automobiles used by students, but though the hourglass turns, pleasures and enjoyment stay the same in the heart of every pupil.

Clubs, intramural sports, band, plays, and dances have been present in school systems since the early 1900's, but as time passes in C.H.S., they are becoming more and more important to each student, as they help to prepare him for the future.

OUR STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Students interested in leadership qualified for positions in the C.H.S. student government. This group planned our assembly programs, sponsored many activities such as dress-up days and the Homecoming weekend, which netted $142.70, for the general use of the school.

Members of the Council discussed the problems of the student body and published "The Senator," which informed the student body of the activities of the Council.

New committees formed this year were student lounge, Dale Ehly, chairman; constitution, Pat Hartzell, chairman; and sportsmanship, Bob Nye, chairman.

SNOW FAILS TO THWART DANCERS

Queen Sue Macdonald and her escort, Charles Fitzpatrick, have eyes only for each other.

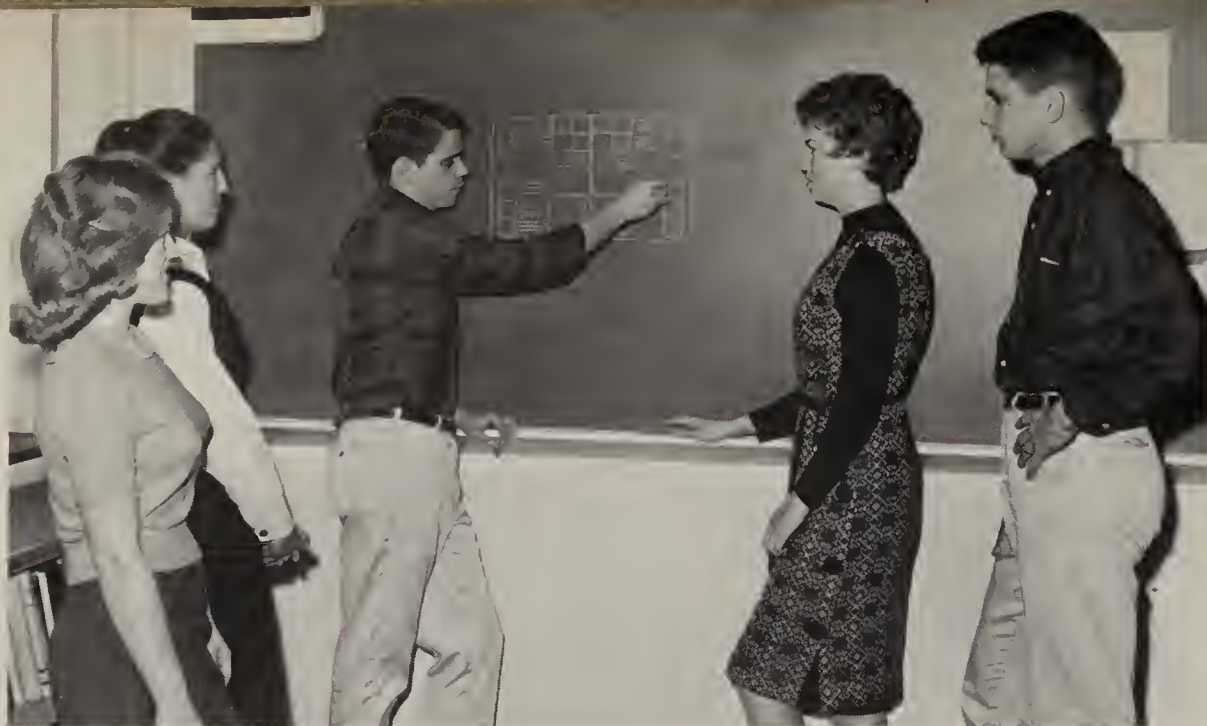

Bob Nye, Student Senate member, has the honor of crowning the C.H.S. queen.

Although the sudden snow and slush of November 3 caused many schools to cancel their activities, and many Carlisle organizations to postpone scheduled meetings, the C.H.S. 1962 Homecoming Dance still went on and became a big success. Sue Macdonald was crowned Homecoming Queen. The Galaxies, directed by Clyde Barr, provided music for part of the evening. Refreshments were served by the Student Council, sponsors of the evening.

At the Homecoming Dance couples danced to music provided by records and the Galaxies, C.H.S. dance band.

BUSY STAFF EDITS BOOK

"Who's doing layouts?" "Where's the grease pencil?" "Bleed it into the gutter," are familiar expressions heard from members of the Oracle staff as they struggle to crop photos, do layouts, and equalize space.

Getting advertisements, and selling Oracles and pictures were some other tasks of the staff.

This year's staff, and adviser, Miss Isabelle Hoover, worked hard to maintain the standard set in 1962, when the yearbook received top honors in evaluation from the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association which selected it for the Keystone Award. It also received first place ratings from both Columbia University Press Association and National Scholastic Press Association.

As they identify package photographs, Nancy Brehm, Corliss Kitner, Judy Green, assistant business manager, and Judy Martin work busily.

Judy Burkholder and Pat Beecher considered the old-fashioned dress to be used for the divider Jack Giselman is to photograph.

Figuring layouts seems to trouble David Brubaker, while Miss Isabelle Hoover, adviser, helps Betty Lee, Barbara Smith, and Allen Fisher with faculty write-ups.

PERISCOPE STAFF HAS BUSY YEAR

Becky Evans and Nikki Krawciw, co-editors; Nancy Gregor, feature editor; and Gary Shank, sports editor, do a final check on pages for the next deadline.

"Extra! Extra! Read all about it in the ten big issues of the Periscope!" could well have been the cry of the Periscope members at the opening of the school year.

Members of the staff kept the student body informed of all the events of interest around the school. Advised by Miss Dilys Shuettler, the members gathered news, wrote sports and feature articles and headlines, proofread pages, and came through with a paper of interest to all.

They also published the handbook which is given to all students on the first day of school.

Agreeing that the picture would be a good one to use, Miss Dilys Shuettler, adviser, Charles Steel, copy editor and circulation manager; Nancy Muselman, Sentinel reporter; Stuart Einstein, reporter; and Ann Stanley, business manager, give their approval.

As Ruth Ann Murtoff, exchange editor, helps, Helen McAdoo, and Nancy Keller, staff reporters, and Vicki Stoner, typist, fold Periscopes to send to exchanges and advertisers.

BAND HAS NEW DIRECTOR

Under the direction of Clyde Barr, the C.H.S. marching band participated in several local parades and performed during halftime ceremonies at football games. Members of the band ran the refreshment stand at home basketball games. Ten members made county band, and Tom Kennedy was selected for district band.

The concert band gave its annual concert May 4. The band performed the highlights from "Gigi" and did a novelty on the concert of the future. As a tribute to a great man, music from Winston Churchill: The Valiant Years was played.

As they prepare to play, Tom Kennedy and Paul Sheaffer clean their clarinets.

Selected for county band from C.H.S. this year were P. Sheaffer, S. Kennedy, R. Richwine, F. Quigley, E. Nell, D. Bollinger, M. Ryesky, G. Saphore, J. Terry, and T. Kennedy.

CHOIR SINGS FOR ASSEMBLIES AND CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS

Performing for the Kiwanis Club and presenting a Christmas Concert occupied the choir in December. The choir boasted seven participants in the District Chorus in January: Jean Philips, Juanita Hunter, Dale Ehly, Doris Plasterer, Nyle Monismith, Joe Miller, and Jay Klauber.

During the month of March, the choir presented an assembly for the Junior High school and sang at the Student Congress Convention. In early spring, members sang at Dickinson College and in the annual Spring Concert. The choir's last engagement was an assembly before the Senior High student body.

The ensembles were busy throughout the year singing for the Mother's Club, the Mt. Holly Lions' Club, the First Lutheran Church Women, the Rotary Club, and the devotion assemblies at school.

Training Aids Boys

To train for the choir, to develop sight reading, and to explore the different fields of music were the purposes of the Boys' Glee Club which met twice a week with Mrs. Joan Boytim.

Their public performances included the Christmas and Spring Concerts and morning devotions in school.

Not only did the Girls' Glee Club prepare students for the choir, but also trained them to sing on different occasions. In addition the club, under Mrs. Boytim's direction, explored as much music as possible in their allotted time each week, and developed appreciation of music.

Singing engagements included the Thanksgiving Assembly, Christmas and Spring Concerts, and morning devotions.

“PEP, STEAM, FIGHT, TEAM,” CHANT CHEERLEADERS.

At one of the best pep meetings of the year, Slugger Wayne Stouffer and Pee Wee Robbie LeFevre were featured in a mock Carlisle-Chambersburg boxing match. This was one activity held by the cheerleaders, who were eager to arouse school spirit through various pep rallies, posters, and cheers at CHS sports events.

Three-year veterans of the squad included seniors Linda Albright and Daree Rowe. Sue Barrett, junior, was a two-year member. Charlotte Kugel, senior, Karen Gallagher, junior, and Natalie Shoemaker, Virginia Lehman, Barb McAdoo, Debby Nickey, sophomores, were first-year members.

Alternates Debby Nickey and Barb McAdoo served when one of the regular cheerleaders was absent.

After giving a cheer for the team, cheerleaders return to the sidelines as the Middletown game resumes.

Spooks roamed at will when the Junior class presented the hilarious comedy, "My Favorite Haunts," February 9 in the CHS auditorium.

With the help of Pat Beecher, Bonnie Pitzer, Bonnie Otstot, student directors; Nancy Dyarman, Dosha Mook, stage managers; and Cynthia Herr and Joanne Wertz, prompters, Mr. Warren Beckman directed a play which revolved around a town in a very natural setting but with most unusual circumstances.

Warren Beckman, faculty director, watches as Mr. Dawson (Joe Haggler) and Mr. Jackson (David Shall) check their make up.

"Penny" A Smash Hit!

Although it may never make Broadway, "Penny," the Senior Class three act comedy, was a roaring success in the auditorium of CHS on November 17, 1962. "Penny" was written by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes and produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc. Fur flies when Penny writes an article that women should have all the rights men do and has it published in the newspaper running in competition to her father's.

As a result of the good ticket sales, the Senior Class added $260.80 net profit to its treasury.

SENIORS PORTRAY COMIC STRIP "PENNY"

Aunt Ellen (Ann Stanley) wants to know what Penny (Sue Macdonald) is trying to do and why her parents let her write and print the article. Her parents, Mrs. and Mr. Pringle (Jean Phillips and Jay Klauber), listen innocently.

Penny (Sue Macdonald) tries to convince her friends, Alice, Fay, and Norma (Sue Steir, Janet McShea, Carel Sheffer), that a fashion show is the best way to raise money. Cedri (Pino Maurino) angry about the magazine article, listens in disgust.

Mrs. Pringle (Jean Phillips) tries to keep two of Penny's boyfriends, Doodie and Elwood (Bob Steinberg and Dennis Roth), from fighting over who is to take Penny to the prom. Cedri (Pino Maurino), another boyfriend, feeling assured of his superiority, smiles confidently.

Charlotte Kugel and her escort, Bill Kronenberg, live it up.

DRAMATISTS LEARN

As they select their annual Thespian Play for Children Virginia Ward, Sue MacDonald, and Marty Clepper study a possibility.

Dramatic Club members John Adams, Jeanette Mills, Robert Weimer, and Sandra Brenneman find difficulty in acting a "fight" scene.

ACTING SKILLS

Under the skillful direction of Warren Beckman, dramatic club members this year received important background material for acting. At many meetings they read from plays to improve in expression and to gain experience. Most members of the club hope to join the Thespians when they earn enough points for initiation into that club. Dramatic club is open to any students interested in the theater.

Thespian members, Marty Clepper and Jay Klauber, watch as Bob Steinberg and Dennis Roth imitate the Thespian masks.

Thespians, No. 214 Members Enjoy Skits

Thespian Troup No. 214, advised by Mrs. H. Ward, produced the annual Thespian play for children and performed many impromptu skits during the club period. Most of the students in Thespians participated in dramatics club for at least two years and all had earned enough points to be initiated into the Thespian Society. For the first time this year, underclassmen were permitted to help with the children's play and thereby to earn points toward Thespian membership.

"Will Virginia Ward strangle Sue Zarr even though she is offered such precious things as the jungle helmet of Dave McAdoo, the false mustaches of Mrs. H. Ward, adviser, the calypso hat of Pino Maurino, and the beads of Sue Macdonald?" is a question which will be answered in this impromptu skit of the Thespian Club members.

Sewing Skills Taught

Sewing a fine seam came easily to these members of the Home Economics Club, who, under the direction of Mrs. Roma Smith, were taught additional skills of sewing. Meeting every Monday, the girls this year made skirts, dresses, and sheaths.

Club Helps Counselor

Meeting twice a month, members of the Commercial Club helped Counselor Leo Johns with a follow-up form on last year's graduates. Some of last year's students came back and gave talks on their experiences working in offices. Advised by Francis Brown, the members learned first hand what is expected in office work.

Art and Poster Clubs Become One Group

This year the Arts and Poster clubs were combined into one and met once a week under the supervision of George Waricher. Members worked on sketching, ceramics, metal work, paintings, and posters.

THE HOSTESS CLUB SERVES

Members serving at Open House: N. Chronister, R. Adams, D. Ellerman, A. Westfall, C. Roebuck, A. Rotz, C. Cline, A. Boldosser, B. Adams.

One of the tasks of the Hostess Club is assisting on College Night. Here Joanne Bear and Betty Lee give information to those taking part in the program.

The Hostess Club was the largest service club at CHS this year. The first meeting of the club was highlighted by the initiation of new members. At this meeting the members were assigned tasks for the rest of the year; such as working in the office as pages and presiding at the information desk.

According to Mrs. Marcella Cockley, adviser, the most important work of the Hostess Club was serving as guides at Open House early in the fall. The girls also served punch and cookies to the parents and faculty during the course of the evening and as hostesses during College Night by distributing programs and directing the visitors.

The Hostess Club proved an asset to CHS by helping to make the special functions of the school a success.

Library Pages Serve in Many Capacities

From names recommended by the English teachers, the librarians selected library Pages. These girls gave up their study halls and faithfully performed tasks in the library.

Under the direction of Miss Mary McAdoo and Mrs. Lucille Harbison, librarians, the girls performed the tasks of shelving books, checking books in and out, and finding magazines for the students. According to Miss McAdoo, the Pages help to insure the success of the library.

SEATED: B. Bear, C. Darr, G. Tritt, J. Green. STANDING: C. Rhoads, P. Weigle, D. Lebo, P. Trayer, P. Case (adviser), C. Black, B. Bear, C. Miller.

Budget Club Works Faithfully as Slide Rule Club Learns

Under the direction of Paul W. Case, the budget club members collected, counted, and deposited budget money. In addition to this weekly job, they checked and stamped the budget cards and sent them to the proper homerooms.

Learning the basic functions of the slide rule and using these in solving problems, members of the slide rule club met every first and second Monday with Miss Martha Adams. During the year they studied a phase of mathematics not regularly given in the high school classroom.

Club Visits Washington

This year the French Club under the direction of Miss Anna Mary Thomas participated in activities ranging from sponsoring dances after basketball games to visiting the Chez Francois, a French restaurant in Washington, D.C.

On November 23 the members of the club took a trip to Washington, D.C., where they visited the Chez Francois, Phillip's Art Gallery, the Greek and Indian Embassies, and Napoleon's Restaurant.

Members conducted in French the business meetings and during the meetings played French games, such as bingo.

Members of Nursing Club Hear Various Speakers

The Future Nurses Club gave interested girls at CHS an insight into a nursing career.

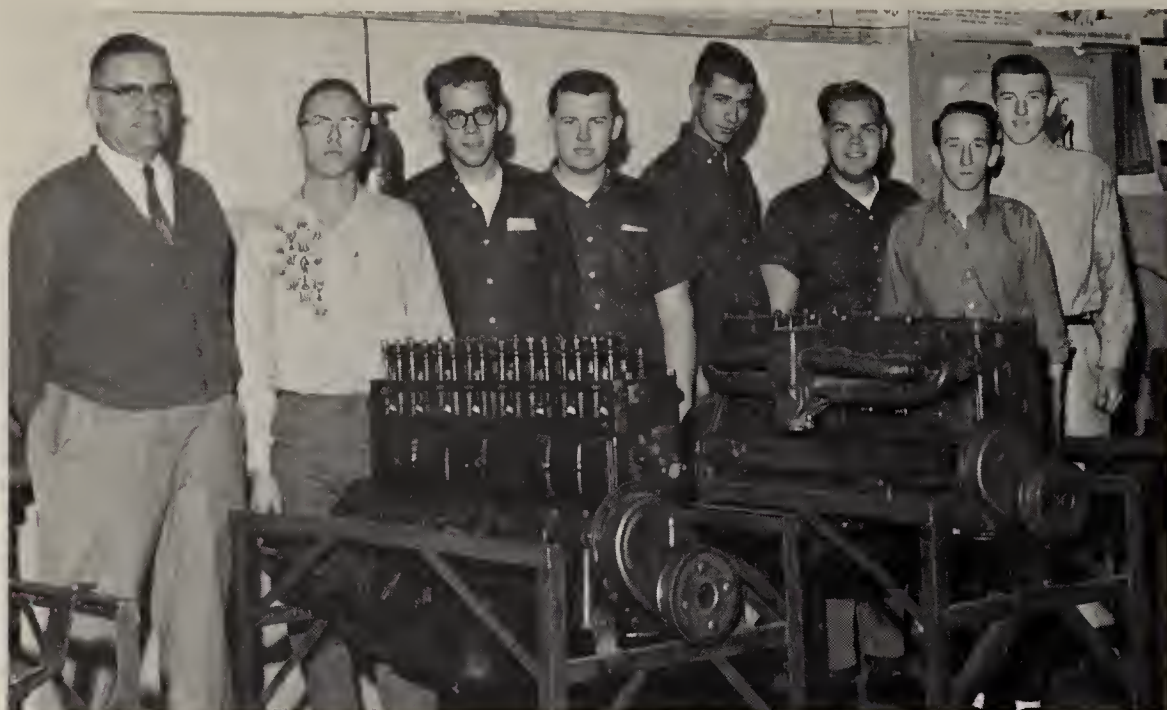

During the meetings the girls heard speakers from various nursing schools, such as the Allentown Nursing School; and viewed films pertaining to medicine.

Early in the fall the officers and Mrs. Kenneth Millen, adviser, formed committees which planned the meetings and selected the films and speakers for the programs of the year.

CLUBS GIVE CAREER HELP

FIRST ROW: Miss A. Thomas, adviser, S. Vervelidou (president), S. Andrews (vice-president), C. Saari (secretary), R. Phillips (treasurer), J. Hoyer, P. McDivitt. SECOND ROW: M. Beckett, A. Learning and working with the many parts of a car was the job of the Auto Club members: C. Kamowski (adviser), C. Graver, D. Barrick, H. Haynes, G. Tritt, D. Miller, E. Whistler, and B. Clark. Absent were R. Ruppert and D. Jumper.

Auto Club Increases Skill

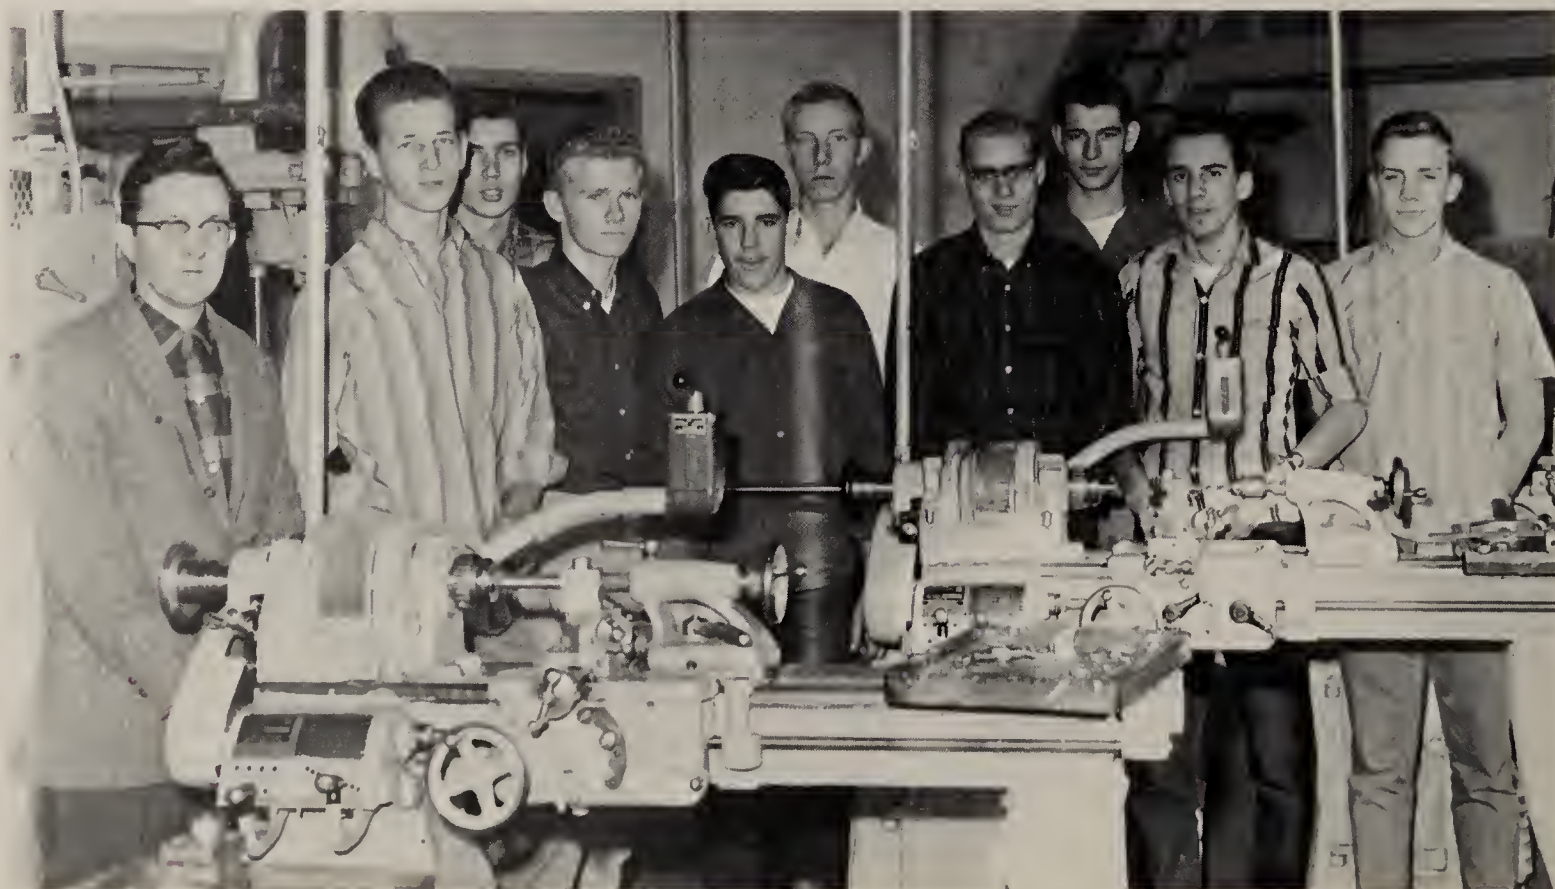

Any boy interested in automobiles had an opportunity to join the Auto Club and learn more about souping up old jalopies and racing cars. The members discussed automotive theory and trouble shooting. They also worked on cars and were given instructions on removing and repairing parts.

Mechanics Hear Speakers

Once a month the Future Mechanics Club members met to discuss the many points of becoming a mechanic. Any boy in the vocational shop was invited to join this club. They were shown movies on this occupation and were given a chance to hear noted industrial speakers.

Cookies replaced apples during American Education Week as F.T.A. members presented both teachers and administrators with cookies in appreciation of teacher services. Club members also heard speakers including Miss Jane Brugnoli, Spanish teacher, Harold Faust, administrative assistant, and a panel of student teachers. Other programs included a discussion on qualities of a good teacher and an N.E.A. film, Crowded Out.

A number of members taught at various elementary schools when the regular teachers were needed elsewhere, and every member had an opportunity to observe in a classroom of the pupil age or subject matter he hoped someday to teach.

Leaving for the Future Teachers' Convention which was held at Millersville are Ann Dete (librarian), Ruth Birrell, Judy Diller (vice-president), Jane Bolan (president), and adviser Leon Kauffman.

FUTURE TEACHERS AND DEVOTIONS CLUBS ARE AN ASSET TO CHS

Devotions Club members J. Farner (secretary), P. Wert (program chairman), H. Leshar (adviser), B. Hock (assistant program chairman), and P. Trayer (typist), meet to plan devotions.

Meeting on the first and second Monday of each month, the Devotions Club, for which students volunteered their services, planned the programs which were held in the auditorium once a month and over the public address system each Monday.

Club members selected the devotional material that was to be read, chose the people to participate, and planned for some sort of music.

CLUB PRACTICES NEW SKILLS

Boys and girls interested in working with heavy apparatus developed physical fitness through the Gymnastics Club, directed by William Nickey, instructor.

The students were taught skills on such equipment as the vaulting box, rings, parallel bars, side horse, trampoline, mats, balance beam, and the uneven parallel bars which were bought this year with the money obtained from last year's Gym Show. This year for the first time boys were given free exercises, in either beginners or advanced classes.

The annual Gym Show, held on March 30, provided a demonstration of gymnastic skills.

Ed Stum does a shoulder stand on the parallel bars.

As he practices for the Gym Show, Jack Giselman does a split.

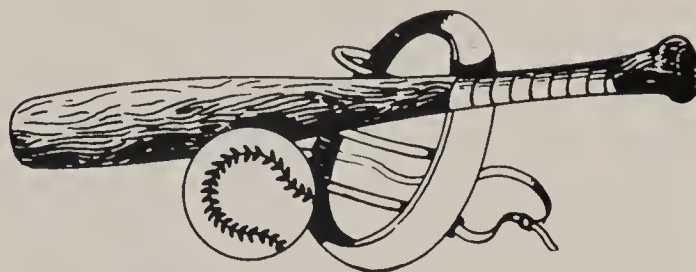

INTRAMURALS INTEREST MANY

Sports-minded people who were interested in exercising in their spare time after school took part in the intramural sports program under the direction of Leon Kauffman.

Included in the program were touch football, tennis, ping pong, volleyball, basketball, track, and softball.

Those who were on the winning teams and participated in at least two-thirds of their scheduled games were awarded letters.

Members of Rainbow, Paula Nickey and Martha Clepper, enjoy the wonderful weather at Rehobeth Beach.

Although some changes have taken place, many of these faces, Bob Nye, Nikki Krawciw, Dale Ehly, David Shall, and (kneeling) Barbara Dutrey, Jack Fanus, can still be recognized at CHS.

OUTSIDE ACTIVITY

Students look on as Miss Carol Swaltek, gym teacher, opens one of the many gifts presented to her at a surprise party.

Ruth Murtoff shows off one of her many talents, as Nancy Musselman, Marjie Ruhl, and Cheryl Kerr listen intently.

Who says there isn't any Santa Claus?

While at the Swim Club, Randy Yoder uses his next door neighbor as a pillow.

VARIES WIDELY

Confirmation was a memorable moment in the lives of R. Murtoff, L. Townsend, Bev Bear, Bea Bear, Y. Blumberg, P. Houser, C. Kerr, G. Konhaus, B. Lins, Pastor Sardeson, Pastor Sassaman, and D. Hoover.

Intramural softball games during ninth grade were the cause of much fun and excitement for Salle Swigert, Pat Finn, Mimi Eckert, Karen Ream, Diane Dubbs, and Virginia Weaver.

While vacationing at Rehobeth Beach, Betty Lee, Joanne Bear, and their friend relax and soak up the sun.

Summer camps provided chances to meet new friends and get away from it all as Cindy Benner, Joan Bou-soum, Franny Hefelfinger, Elaine Baker, Jackie Kuhns, and friends seem to be doing.

Here's our Sophie, with some of her friends in Greece.

Bill Earp, Tom Morgan, and Denny Deitch are about to find out who is the fastest swimmer.

LIFE OUT OF SCHOOL

Awaiting the morning bell, Dale Ehly and Nikki Krawciw chat with David Shall.

Coming up for a breath of air, Daree Rowe is caught by the camera at Ocean City.

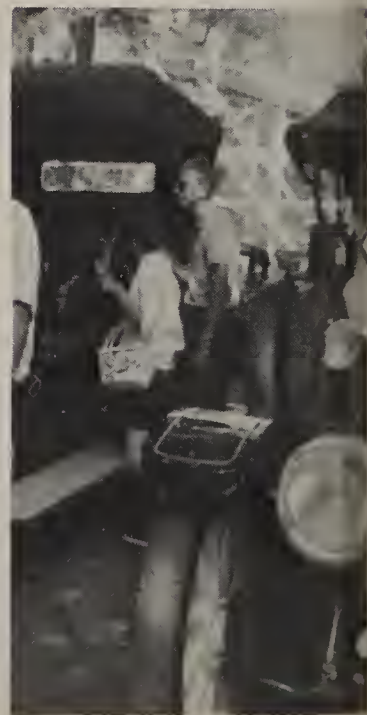

While decorating for homecoming, Bob Steinberg, Bob Holt, Bob Nye, Nikki Krawciw, Dick Suter, and Rick Kime take time out for a little fun.

Bob Holt crowns Karen Krosen while Dick Suter and Dale Ehly watch in amusement.

Examining old cars seems to be a very interesting pastime for Yvonne Blumberg and Dennis Hoover.

This pizza won't last long as Sharon McDaniel, Carol Tally, and Elaine Baker eagerly bite into it.

At Connie and Vonnie's slumber party, Ruth Myers, Joanne Blessing, Sylvia Myers, Linda Hill, and Eleanor Hartzell pose with their favorite stuffed toys.

Do you recognize Wayne Stouffer and Jim Kistler?

Taking time out for a rest during gym class are Leroy Mell, Bob Nye, John Rehr, Tom Berg, and Pino Maurino.

At a party in Judy Burkholder's basement, Jim Kistler plays camera shy behind Jake Spangler and Bob Kamowski.

As Carel Sheffer and Barb Dutrey do a pantomime, Pat Finn tries to guess what they represent.

Linda Albright provides support as Carel Sheffer autographs a picture.

SPARE TIME ACTIVITIES

SLUMBER PARTIES

While holding a slumber party in a tent, Liz Godding, Charlotte Kugel, Karen Blevins, Carel Sheffer, Diana DiBlasi, and Janet McShea have a lively evening.

Having their picture taken seems to be a tiring job for John Sabol, Paul Snyder, Jake Spangler, Jim Kistler, Fred Boyer, Bob Kamowski, and Tim Schooley.

At the Canteen, girls wait "patiently" while Mimi Eckert prepares something to eat.

At a slumber party Elaine Baker, Carol Talley, and Yvonne Blumberg test to make sure there will be enough room for everyone.

Marjorie Ruhl, Cheryl Kerr, and Nancy Musselman watch as Linda Sillers and Ruth Murtoff clown around.

Excitement on the basketball court holds the attention of Diane Durnin, Lenny McLaughlin, and Bob Keim.

WERE POPULAR

Although Barb Dutrey appears annoyed, John Albright, Rich Kime, and Joe Miller continue their gay antics. Remember those days?

While on a trip to Penn State U., Betty Lee, Pat Beecher, Margie Penner, and Joanne Bear meet to share the food they brought along.

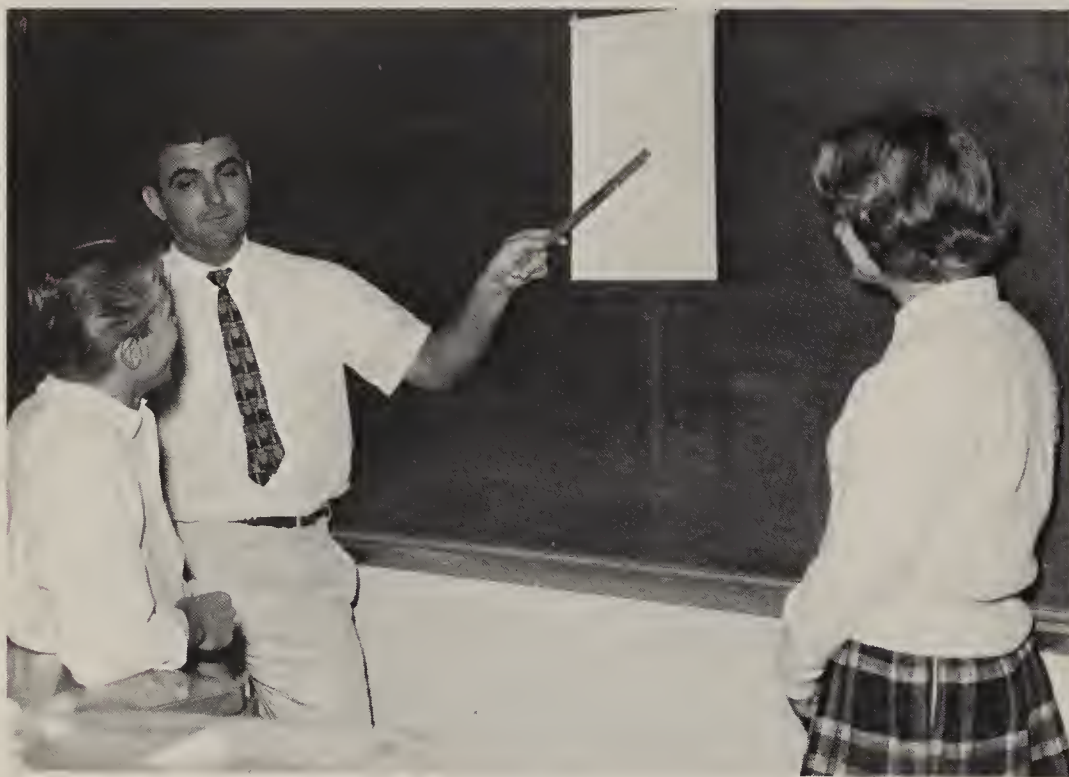

It was just a simple trip to the beach, but Mary McKeehan and Corliss Kitner brought enough for an overnight stay.

SHOPS PROVIDE TRAINING FOR THE FUTURE

As Linda O'Donald watches, George Spaseff, mechanical drawing teacher, explains a sliding gate valve to Glenn Wolford.

With teacher Charles Skovira watching, Leonard Loy cuts a dovetail on the milling machine.

In auto shop, Charles Cornman and Larry Markle learn the correct way to install brakes.

Charles Breneisen, teacher of mill and cabinet shop, explains planing to Guss Stine, Jim Gross, Joe Boyer, and Allen Key.

EXERCISE PROMOTES GOOD HEALTH

Rugged warm-ups prepare an active gym class.

With Miss Carol Swaltek leading, girls do leg lifts in physical education class.

Unusual things may happen in health class. Here Gloria Howard watches as Dave McAdoo describes a ram skull to Jeanne Phillips.

Jeanne Kissinger shoots while Jeri Quackenbush, Ann Hertzler, Mary Jo Beckett, and Marlene O'Neil wait for the rebound.

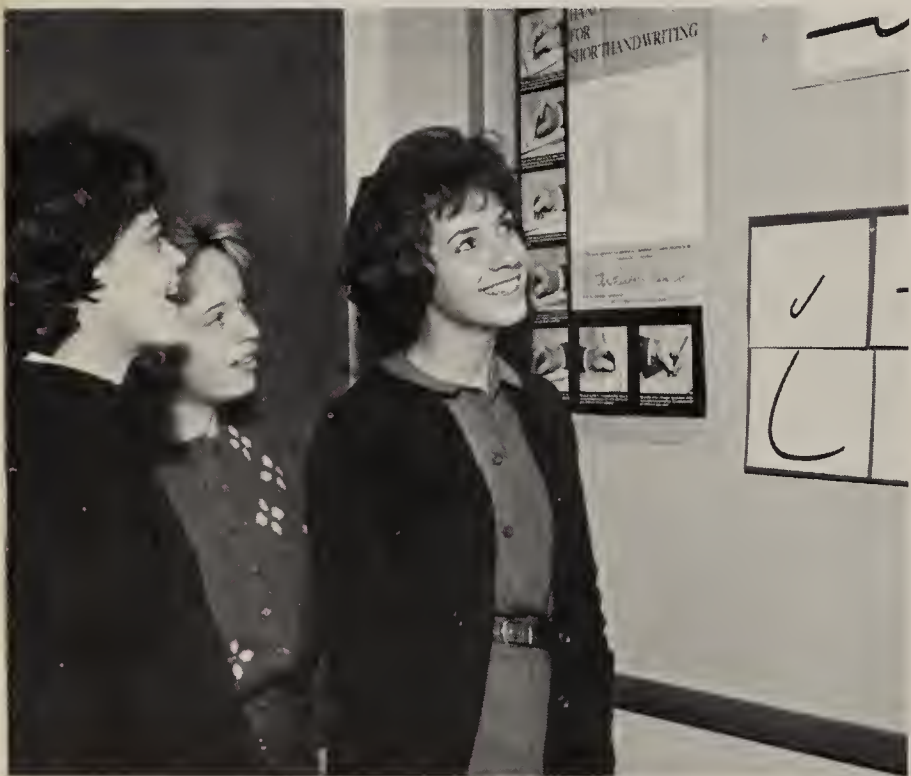

While Becky Frey diligently finishes her transcription, Carol Talley asks Miss Emily Hedden a question in order to transcribe her shorthand notes accurately.

FUTURE WORK IS PRACTICED

"Mr. — Market," chants Joan Darhower, as she, Penny Carter, and Diane Dubbs interpret brief forms in Shorthand I.

Before anyone types, the three letter styles are studied by Typing II students, Y. Stringfellow, B. Keckler, E. Turner, P. Stull, A. Kuhn, and C. Surber.

Janet Griffie and Phyllis Frick learn how to operate the ten-key adding listing machines in office practice.

Last night's homework is finished in study hall by Daree Rowe, Reggie VanAsdalen and Connie Cline.

Forced into the band room by over-crowded conditions, study hall students work diligently.

Youle Harvey shows Judy Neff and Betty Failor the book which he used for his extra credit report in United States History.

A KNOWLEDGE OF HISTORY IS THE RESULT OF STUDY

American Observer is read by Kenneth Millen, United States History teacher, to Chris Ulsaker, Pat Hartzell, Jeri Quackenbush, and Ann Eberman.

While Miss Mary Merkle, Spanish teacher, listens to Nikki Krawciw's recording, Dennis Carothers waits his turn.

MANY STUDENTS LIKE LANGUAGES

As Don Seibert supervises, Donna Stanton practices conjugating verbs in French class.

Giving her first speech of the year seems to make Wendy Kitner nervous.

Mrs. Helen Ward, English II teacher, explains a literature assignment.

Forced into a classroom because of crammed cafeteria conditions, Brenda Lehman, Marie Behrens, and Frances Myers eat their lunches, as Joanne Bunty finishes her last-minute homework.

LUNCH . . . THE MIDDLE OF THE DAY

While awaiting the dismissal bell, Lynn Raudabaugh, Dick Kuhn, Bill Alspaugh, and Don Keck talk about the events of the morning.

Dreary looks seem to mix with books.

After lunch, the Thundering Herd rushes back to classes.

Bill Kelly explains to Shari Reamer how to use the flexible shaft machine which is used for polishing jewelry in fine arts class.

Drawing a form, Betty Simms, Bev Adams, and Bev Kauffman classify different denominations of money in business mathematics class.

INTERESTS VARY

In printing class Harold Leshner, teacher, observes Connie Fisher and Cheryl Heller as they do hand composition.

During a free period A. Silverthorn, J. Weller, E. Turner, D. Bollinger, J. Haggler, G. Saphore, and P. Sheaffer hold a jam session.

In mathematics analysis class Miss Martha Adams explains conic sections to Jane Bolan, Pat Haynes, and Ron Richcreek.

After biology class Chester Lickel, teacher, discusses the life cycles of wasps and hornets with Janice Hemingway and Dick Moses.

Experimenting in chemistry class, Dave Hellen, Helen Heineman, Jack Gillaugh, and Sally Franciscus produce hydrogen from potassium chlorate.

John McDermott, teacher of nuclear science, describes to Dick Strayer and Bill Dunn the use of the scaler-ratemeter for measuring radiation.

Dunce stools and caps may symbolize the past, but the teachers and administration are as everlasting as the sand of an hourglass.

Faculty ways and ideas will constantly change, but the spirit of the teacher always lingers in the class room.

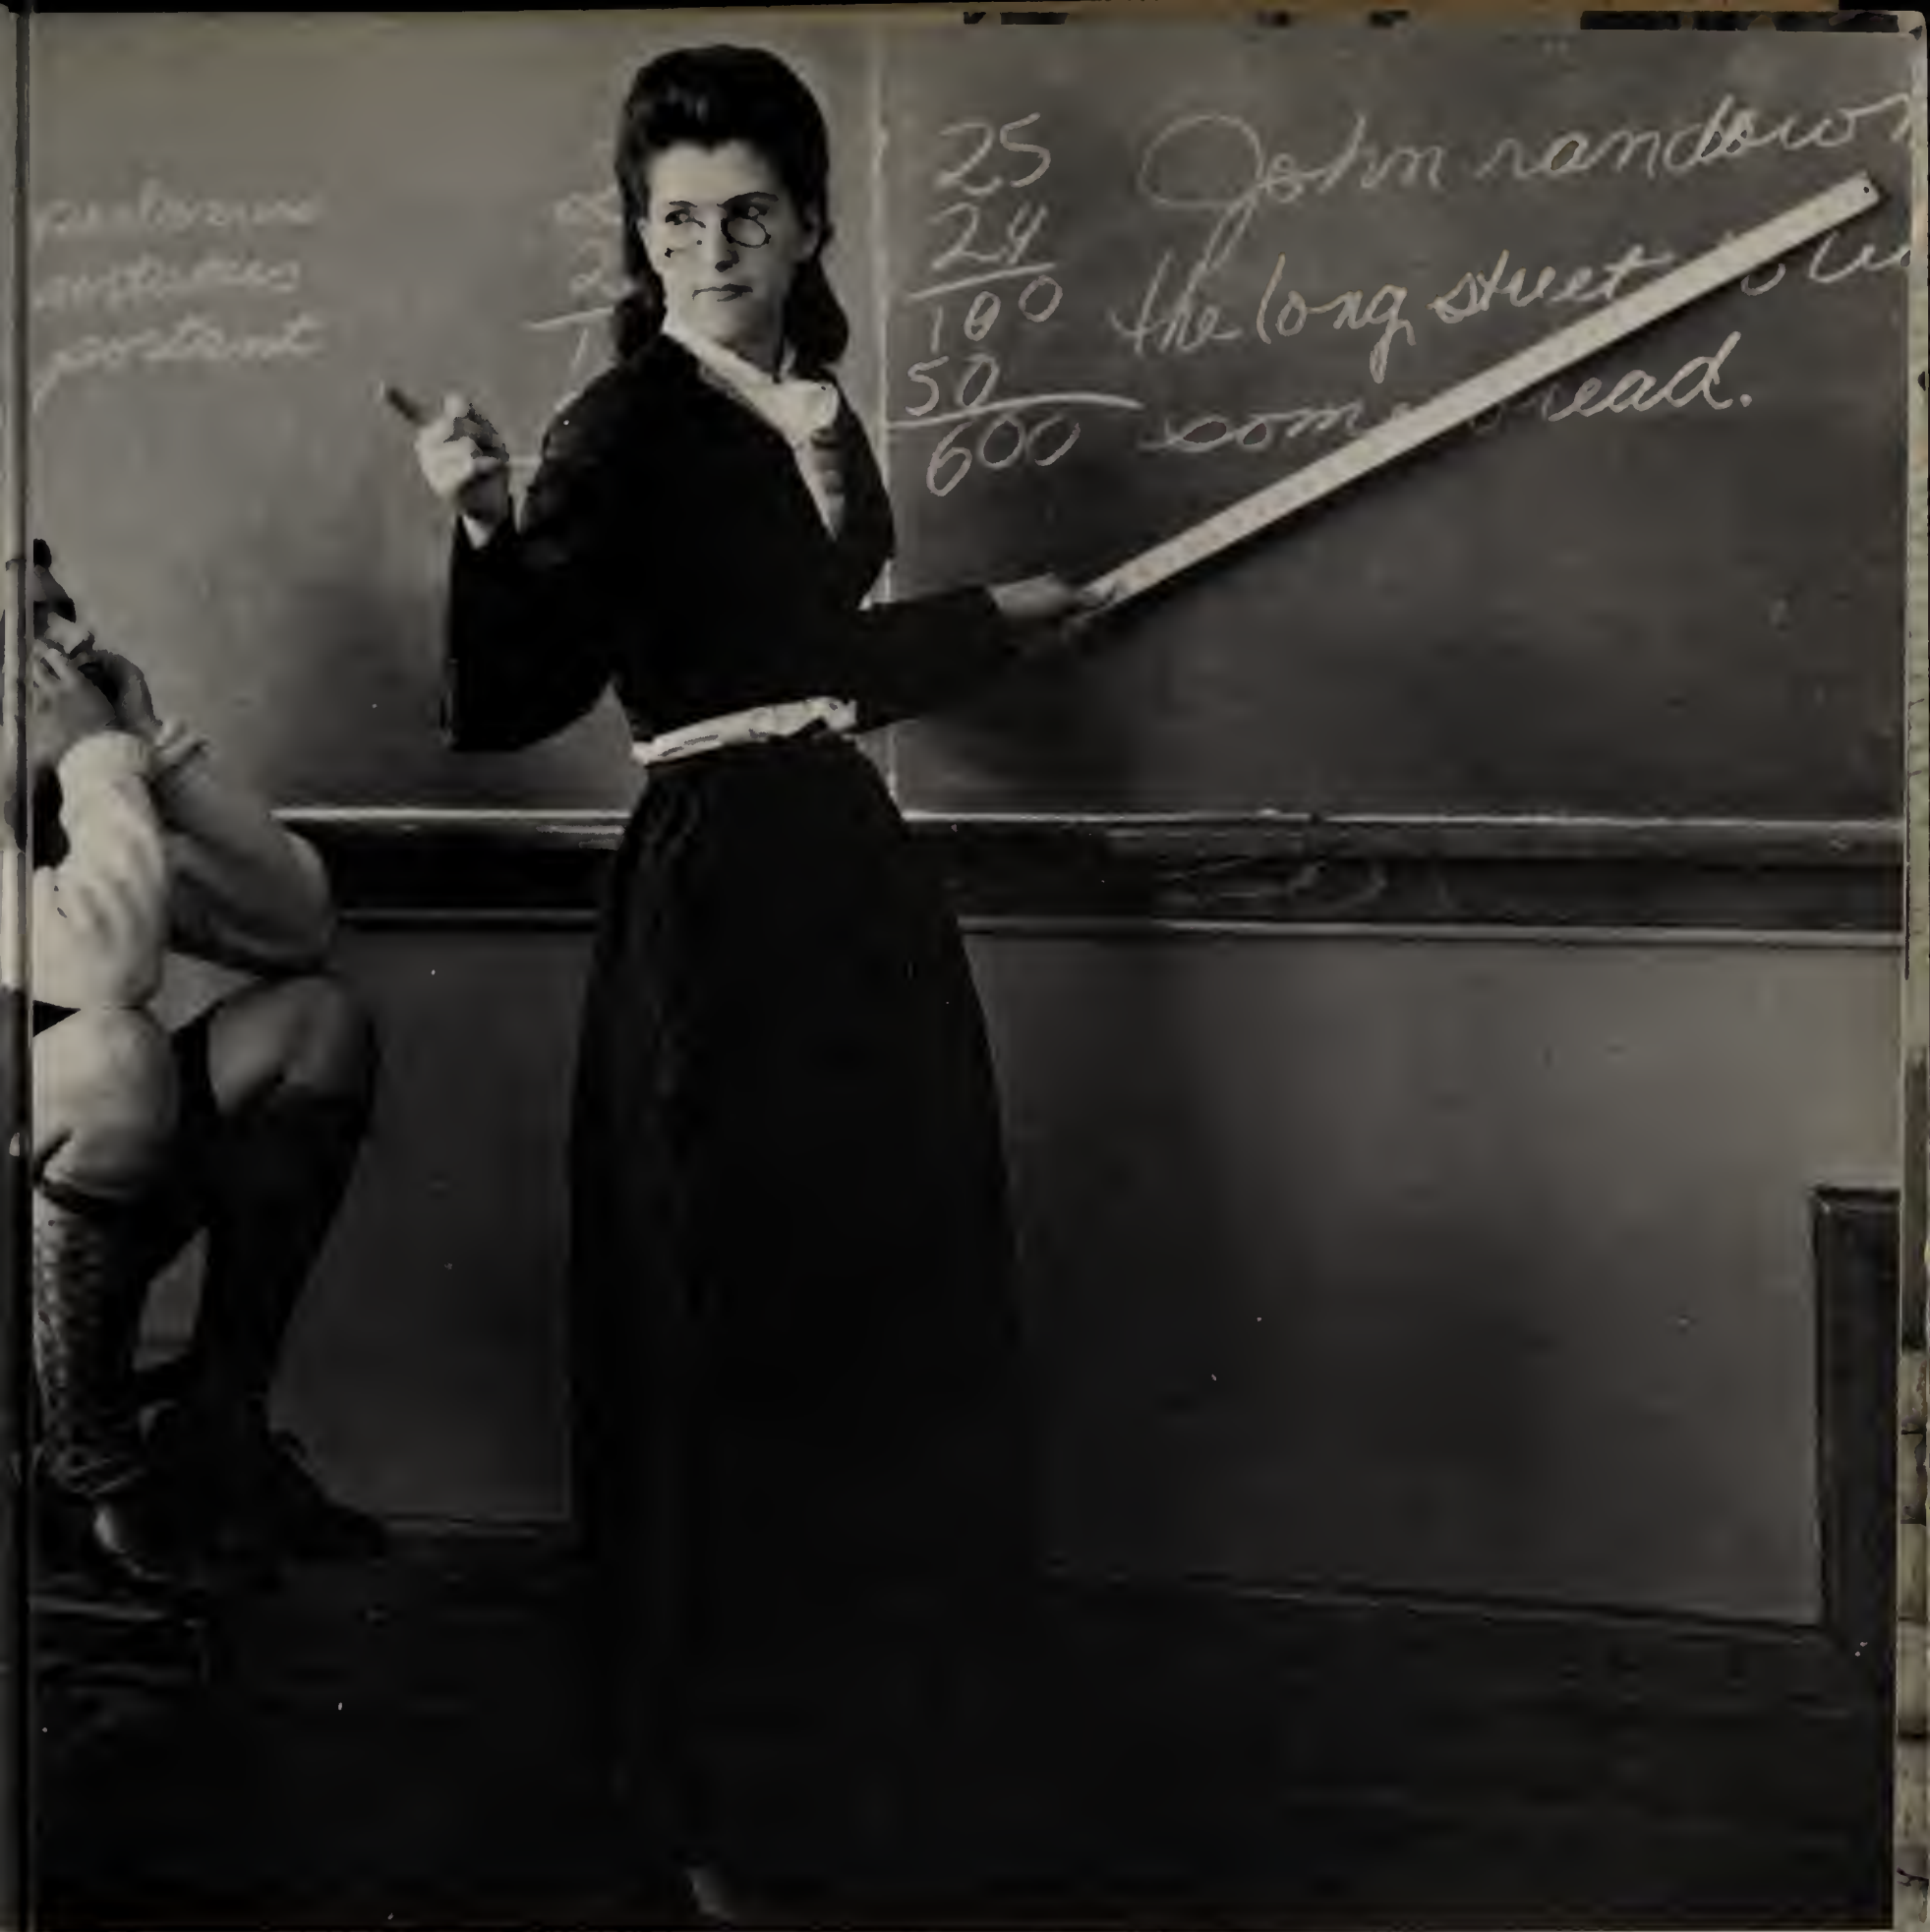

As each student begins a new school year, he knows that in every class he will gain another friend, the teacher.

Every student of C.H.S. has reason to say, "Thank-you, Faculty and Administration!"

STAFF SERVES C.H.S. STUDENTS

Waiting to take students home after a busy day of school, the bus drivers get together for a gab session: R. Davis, W. Meals, L. Stone, E. Staver, L. Herman, Jr., J. Berkstresser, J. Leer, J. McKenna, P. Myers.

Prepared to serve another group of hungry students, the cafeteria cooks await the rush. FRONT ROW: Mrs. M. Pittman, Mrs. M. Sheffler, Mrs. E. Wagner, Mrs. B. Vaughn, and Mrs. E. Evans. BACK ROW: Mrs. J. Boldosser, Mrs. C. Adams, Mrs. M. Danner, and Mrs. B. Stouffer.

To keep our school neat and clean is the job of the maintenance staff. KNEELING: C. Brown, M. Trimmer, A. Bohn, R. Wolfe. STANDING: Mrs. L. Grone, Mrs. M. Mosses, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. V. Ott, Mrs. R. Kee, Mrs. E. Myers, Mrs. I. Fisher.

Days of pulling pigtails and eating all-day suckers are gone when the sophomore of today reaches Senior High School with its new building, new rules, more freedom, and harder courses. Those seniors are so big. "Will I ever be one?" he wonders.

Time passes, however; and as a junior he settles down to earn that scholarship. Harder study, College Night, ordering class rings, and planning the Junior-Senior Prom are only small grains of sand in the preparation for the approaching senior year.

SENIORS

On graduation day it is time to turn over the hour glass of school days and start a new way of life. For some it will mean college; others, full-time jobs; while still others choose the Armed Forces. Yes, Graduation is the beginning, not the end; the beginning of a new hour glass, a new life. Ways, teachers, and courses vary. One thing remains the same — the students. Although the white lace dress has changed to a long black gown, the meaning of graduation will never change in the heart and mind of the graduating senior.

As years passed, Carlisle lost many fine establishments, but it also gained many new businesses.

The Old Market House is perhaps the most familiar building of early Carlisle. In its place today stands a new court house.

With each new era, ways of advertising and business change. New means of communication have made advertising easier for the merchant. The Oracle is still a popular means of advertising to students and teachers of C.H.S. and to all the families represented. In the pages that follow will be found information about many local firms. Give them your business. It pays to shop in Carlisle.

"Carlisle's Home Newspaper"

Graduates of 1962 gather for class banquet.

Barb, To a very sharp, cute girl. A dwarf, keep your pleasant smile and your neat personality. "Best of luck" in everything you do.
a dwarf,
Dana
-63-

Barb,
To a dear girl in
the squad of 62-3!
May you have the
best life has to offer!
Sometimes Remember!
Sun

Barb,
It was really
nice to meet you
this year at Camp
Michaux. Before, when you had visited our church I had always wanted to meet you.
Finally I did and am very glad. Always stay your own sweet self - then you'll go far in this world.
Best of luck always and may God bless you

Debbie Blessner
Shippensburg, Pa.

Barb, cont.
Well, here
we are at Camp
Michaux. Remember
those beautiful old women who played those instruments. Remember the fun we had laughing at them in the back of the room.
Also remember that tremendous kiss and my wonderful leg. ha!
Remember that swim at Sullivan
Lake and the fun we had. Remember those wild dances we had. Oh! boy.
Also remember those exercises
we took. ha! and how we felt the next morning.
I hope we can get together at your camp this summer. I can't wait to know you can't wait to come up. I can't wait to have a ball with you!
Remember your (hum!)
personality and spouting
unit. So far! you are so far!
25" BEGCO"

Barbie,

May your days be filled with happiness, your hours with understanding, your minutes joy, and your whole life with love. And may God guard & guide you now and always,

Pennee Custer

P.S. I know it doesn't sound like me, but I really am a very serious person — sometimes.

just me.

Barb -

I truly wish all the happiness in the world to someone who deserves it. Your wonderful personality and outgoing friendship has really meant a lot to me this week at camp and will take you far in the future. Never forget the fun and experiences we had at camp Michaux in '63! Good luck and may your fondest dreams come true!

Be good and take care!

Always a friend,
Terry Good

Barb,

I sure have enjoyed getting to know you a lot better this year. I think that you are a really sweet and cute girl. Best of everything in your junior and senior year in High school. I hope to see you next year at camp - always

Jeannie
Rippon

Barb

It was fun being on the squad with you this year - maybe next you'll do it over again - don't ever give up! Good luck in the future as you deserve only that.

A.F.A.

Sue

(S. Barret)

Barb,

To the dearest and sweetest girl I've ever met. Never lose that winning smile and personality that is yours and yours alone. - May you always be blessed with every happiness in the world because you deserve it more than anyone I know. I hope you'll forever be my friend - - God bless and keep you always. . . .

For always,
Chris Custer

Barb,

May you always have success in the coming years. Always remember camp and the snowy day you came up to see me and I - - ! It sure was fun. Always be as nice as your friend always,
Janne

Barb,

Never ever forget all our great times together at Camp Mishawap. It sure is the greatest place in the world. Remember Calvin Oxnard, "the Holy Roller Dels," and trying in vain to win the black garbage can or the golden broom. You are a very pretty girl with a wonderful personality, so please stay the same. Best of luck in your attempt at adulthood. I think you should have made it this year. May God bless and keep you always. Mary Hurd.

Barb -

To a real cute girl -

Remember all our cool times at retreat and those wild??

study halls in the Cafe - keep that great smile and nice personality -

Always

Randy (Yoder)
"63"

Barb,
To the real cute girl whose smile made the cheerleading squad all that it was. There will always be a warm spot in my memories for you; the girl with all the team spirit it takes. Good luck always,
and that warm smile
Remember the cool times at the tennis and school. Love,
Bob

Barb,
So a real darling girl with a wonderful personality. Always remember all our fun in C.H.S., at part, and at parties. Stay you, a sweet self with your great smile and the world will be your friend. Good luck in the future and in everything you do. "Sometimes Remember Me"
Love ya,
Cathy
(Leshen)

Barb

It's been a lot of fun knowing you this year. You're a real nice girl with a real nice personality. Keep smiling through the years and you'll go far. Remember English and Biology classes and all the fun we had, especially Biology with Frostle and his "flars". I wish you the best of luck in whatever you do and I hope you enjoy life to the fullest. Remember me always.

Rayne "65" Burger

Barb
I hope you and your family will stay
as wonderful as you have been with me in the past year. Always remember our good times here at Conifer Take care and don't get in too much trouble.
Always your friend,

IN APPRECIATION

The Oracle Staff of '63 wishes to extend its thanks and appreciation to the American Yearbook Company, publishers; Mr. Neil Layser, yearbook representative; to Sterling Studios; The Sentinel; and to all members of the student body and faculty who helped to make this '63 yearbook possible.

Dear Barb-

To real darling girl. Never forget all the fun we had together in our sophomore year. Never forget all the fun we had at those wild Church conferences and retreats.

Barb,

To a real, real nice girl, good luck and best wishes in the years to come

A. F. H.

Dick (Goodyear)

Barb,
I'm sure you could never forget this year at CHS - it's been really great! I never will forget how much fun we've had in cheerleading, going to away games and everything. If you keep smiling and never change I'm sure you'll have my vote when the time rolls around again. You are one of my favorite sophomores and I'm sure you'll be one of my favorite juniors. We will never be able to forget our +snack+ class with this Thomas - unfortunately for us - but maybe next year we'll have her again - heaven forbid.
I've really enjoyed knowing you Barb and I expect to see you cheering in 1964
Best of anything always - you deserve it.
Love ya,
Karen
(Gallagher)

Barb,
To a girl with personality +
I'll always remember the girl with a smile! Keep those good grades and that terrific attitude and you will go farrrrrrr
Good Luck!
Chris

Barb,
To a real cute
girl in my Biology
Class what a riot!
Always stay the way
you are with your great personality. Best of Luck
in everything you do.

Terry (Nickey)

Barb,
To a darling girl,
with a personality to match and you'll be a smile and you'll be a friend.

Barbara -

See - I could never begin to list all our good times. There were so many, and there are many more to come. This year has been very interesting in many ways. It was our first year at CHS and I know we'll never forget it. Remember cheerleading, gym class, "flar" hunting, Miss Fiches, Stanley Q. Morgan, etc. Although this year had many disappointments, I believe the good events balance them out. Agree? Anyways, there's always next year, so keep your chin up!

You are sweet and whatever you want will be yours - of this I'm sure. Never ever change your personality - it's the best! If you just stay as you are - luck, success and happiness will naturally follow. May you have the best life has to offer - you deserve it. Hope you soon find your special someone; whoever he is he'll certainly get one of the nicest, sweetest, cutest and smartest girls ever produced in Carleton and at CHS!!!!

May God bless you - may luck be yours - may you have whatever you desire - and may you sometimes remember - - -

A. F. A. -

Natalie

P.S. - Mr. J. doesn't mind people signing these, does he? He's so funny and dear!

Barb

To a real nice girl with a smile for everyone. You have a great personality. Always stay the way you are and you will go far, Good Luck in everything you do.

ORACLE SUPPLEMENT

"Extra! extra!" is the cry of the newspaper boy and also of the Oracle staff which here presents a report of the close of this school year.

In earlier times the Towne Crier brought his hearers up to date. Today, the Oracle staff presents its readers a supplement to complete the report of activities at CHS in 1962-'63.

SEATED: P. McDivitt, B. Herr. STANDING: K. O'Hanlan, J. Klauber, G. Tritt, J. Spangler, S. Flower, G. Stubbs, J. Haggler, P. Haynes, J. Mills, and J. Adams pause for a picture during dress rehearsal.

K. O'Hanlan, G. Tritt, P. McDivitt, L. West, R. Steinberg, and J. Shultz listen for S. Flower's advice.

As the witch (J. Mills) brews her stew, G. Tritt, K. O'Hanlan, P. McDivitt, S. Flower (SEATED), B. Herr, and P. Haynes look on.

GHOSTS HAUNTED THE TOWN

Junior Class Play
Held February 9

"You're crazy not to believe in ghosts, Dr. Frantz (S. Einstein)," sneer Penelope (K. O'Hanlan) and Millicent (G. Tritt).

At the Valentine dance, students whirl to the music of the Galaxies, CHS dance band.

AN EVENING WITH CUPID

The twist calls for the attention of Rick Pillsbury, Mary A. Bowen, Bob Nye, and Sue Surcamp.

As the couples dance, the Galaxies play on.

With hearts for a background, Robbie Belden, Peggy Dripps, Bill Kyle, and Joy Adams dance dreamily through the night.

While John Stull and Sherrill McLeod watch, Dick Suter and Barb Dutrey take a turn on the dance floor.

Towering over the refreshment stand, a replica of the Eiffel Tower provides conversation for Bob Steinberg and Beth Briner.

Queen Donna Beary and King Andy Silverthorn receive a bouquet of red and white carnations from Principal Mark N. Burkhart.

"Where will we get costumes? It isn't Halloween!"

"Use your imagination."

The students who came on March 1 solved this problem as they were attired in costumes representing characters from Cleopatra to Hazel and her TV fans.

The French Club sponsored the dance, the first Mardi Gras in ten years for C.H.S., and provided refreshments, dainty cookies of all varieties. After the torture of the twist and the limbo, the students pampered their sacroiliacs by dancing to the slow music of the Larks in a decor français très artistique.

MARDI GRAS CELEBRATED

"Our Man Higgins" (Pino Maurino) and "Hazel" (Cheryl Kerr) placed second for best costumes at the dance. Here Sue Andrews presents the awards.

With picturesque scenes of Paris in the background, Bob Farnell and Norma Baird dance to the music of the Larks.

After the coronation and the awarding of prizes, Donna Beary and Andy Silverthorn, George Carnahan and Rita Phillips enjoy a slow dance.

CHS STYLE

Under the watchful eye of Karen Gallagher and Allen Fisher, who as Cleopatra and Anthony placed first for best costumes, Andy Silverthorn goes under the limbo stick while Patty McDivitt watches with amusement.

Relaxing after a bout with the twist, Linda Townsend, John Rehr, Jeff Fogelsanger, Helen McAdoo, Cheryl Kerr, and Pino Maurino laugh at Helen's joke.

About 75 schools were represented by 300 students and advisers when the Southern Pennsylvania Student Council Conference was held at CHS on March 29. Hostesses (SEATED) Karen Kroesen, Nikki Krawciw, (STANDING) Dale Ehly, and Nancy Dyarman greet and register members of the convention.

Student Council Hosts Conference

During the opening session the exchange students from different schools discussed life in the U.S. vs. life in their country. Third from left is our Greek exchange student "Sofie."

Members of the conference divided into groups to discuss informally mutual school problems.

Charles Wike of John Harris leads a group talking about sportsmanship in school activities

After the afternoon session, delegates enjoy a pepsi break and get better acquainted.

MARCH ACTIVITIES NUMEROUS

G. Owens, J. Mills, R. Greenway, D. Melisauskas, and A. VanAsdalan, members of the stage crew, prepare for the Thespian play. Absent stage crew members are R. Ferree, L. Sharp, T. March, R. Simons, J. Nelson, J. Heisey, and K. Sheaffer.

Last minute corrections are made during dress rehearsal. In the chimney: S. Macdonald, P. Wert. At sides of chimney: D. Roth, and B. Sherman. In front: J. Haggler, J. Adams, M. Clepper, M. O'Neil, Mrs. H. Ward and W. Beckman (advisers), and B. Steinberg.

Paula Wert (the witch) offers Sue Macdonald (Repunzel) some of her witch's brew in order to turn her into a witch.

"REPUNZEL AND THE WITCH"

"Repunzel, Repunzel, hang down your hair" was the cry heard in the auditorium of CHS on Saturday, March 30, as Thespian Troupe #214, performed its Tenth Annual Children's play for an audience of about four hundred.

John B. Adams (Repunzel's father) is turned into a tree by the witch. Martha Clepper (Repunzel's mother) stands by helpless, as Paula Wert (the witch) forces Sue Macdonald (Repunzel) to drink some of her brew.

FRONT ROW: J. Kissinger, L. Kling, B. Hoch, M. Ryesky.
SECOND ROW: G. Pace, W. Kyle, J. Terry, M. McDonnell, F. Quigley, R. Moyle, A. Young, R. Richcreek, G. Saphore. THIRD ROW: R. Richwine, D. Bollinger, J. Miller, D. Wiser, B. Heiser, C. Barr (Director). BACK ROW: E. Rice, H. Jones, G. Newberry.

BAND CONCERT ENTERTAINS ALL

FRONT ROW: T. Kennedy, P. Sheaffer, E. Nell, K. Witner, S. Frownfelter, L. Sell.

Concert Presented in Assembly

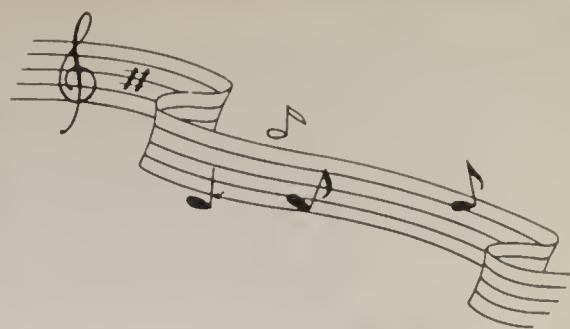

Awards Given

Receiving their third year band awards are Carel Sheffer (head majorette) and Hubie Jones (president), who also received the CHS Band Association Award.

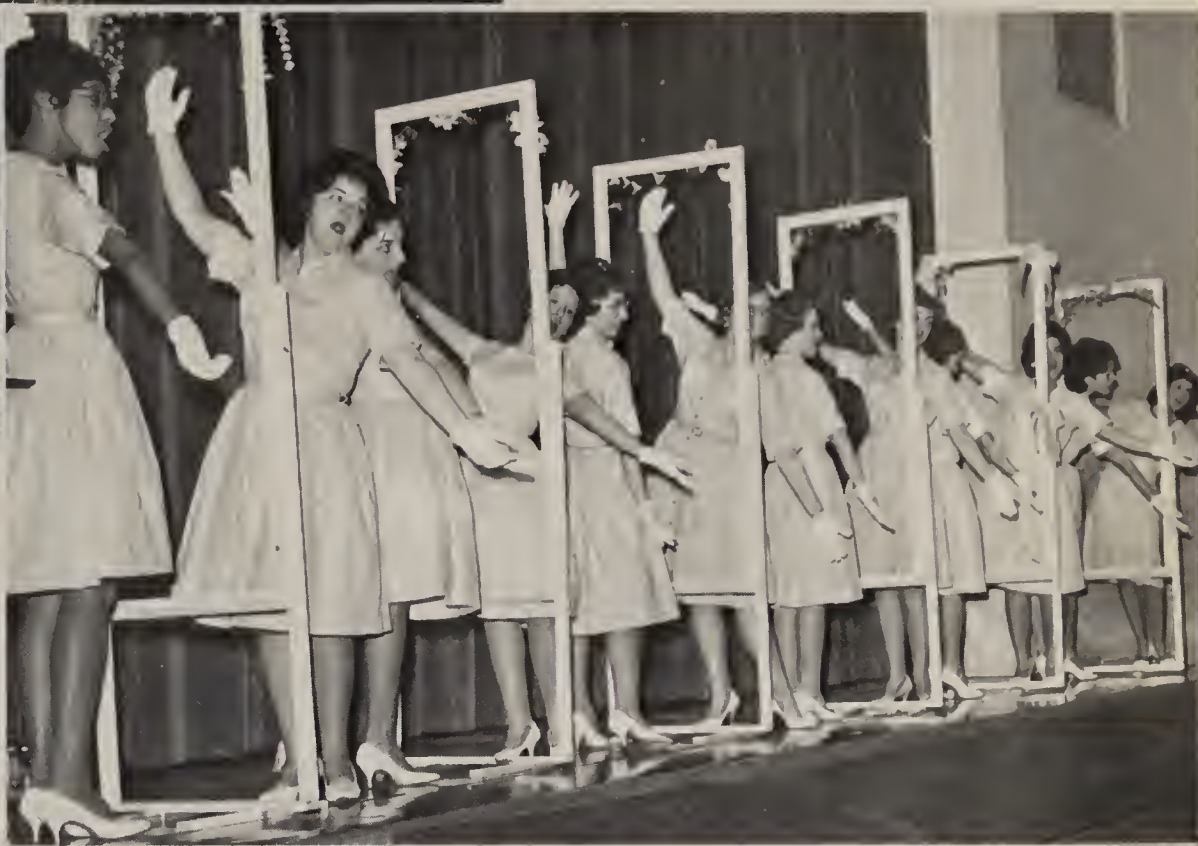

Narrating the band assembly, Ron Richcreek adds a bit of laughter on every possible occasion.

The band's lead trumpet player, Dave Bollinger, displays his talent in a solo spot of the program.

Special lighting effects coupled with the harmonizing voices of the choir make for a very enjoyable evening.

As the girls' ensemble sings, "I Enjoy Being A Girl," the audience really understands. J. Hunter, K. Ream, A. Lewis, L. Townsend, M. McDonnell, A. Hayward, B. Bear, D. Plasterer, S. Alspaugh, B. Pitzer, B. Otstot, and J. Phillips are the singers.

CONCERT PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Under the direction of Mrs. Boytim, the CHS High School Choir presented its annual spring concert on Saturday, April 6. The choir sang both sacred and modern songs. Special features were the boys' octet, girls' ensemble, boys' and girls' glee clubs. Soloists were C. Roebuck, J. Hunter, B. Souders, N. Monismith, K. Ream, J. Phillips, B. Owens, and J. Haggler.

Songs by the boys' octet delighted the audience. Members were B. Kuhn, B. Nye, R. Goodyear, D. Bushey, J. Kelly, D. Warner, M. Ickes, E. Minich, R. Zeigler, J. Fletcher, T. Kaler, L. Hale, M. Beebe, J. Shuman, J. Cantalupi, B. Weimer, and R. Cleaver.

Expressions, costumes, and props made the boys' octet number, "Poor Jud Is Dead," very realistic. G. Gobantes, D. Brehm, J. Haggler, B. Souders, R. Keim, and J. Klauber appear. Absent: P. Maurino. Hidden in picture: J. Miller.

Refreshments were enjoyed throughout the evening.

All tired out, Ken Barrick tries to resist Janet McShea's plea for one more dance.

To the dreamy music of the Mel-Macs the dancers glide along.

Decorations and beautiful gowns help make the 1963 Prom colorful and unforgettable.

THEME OF '63 PROM

As the evening wears on, Jeri Quackenbush, Gary Stubbs, Bonnie Otstot, and Charles Craig dance smoothly to the music of the Mel-Macs.

Joan Hockenberry, Donald Stump, Beth Briner, Bob Steinberg, Karen Ream, and Donald Barrick pause to admire the fountain in the garden.

Latin guests and students wait for the first course at the seventh annual Roman banquet in the high school cafeteria. Skits, a chariot race, and a "Wild World of Sports" provide post dinner entertainment.

MANY THERE, BUT NOT NERO

Dennis Finkey may think that being king is an easy job, but King Jim Cummings realizes the dangers involved as Gerald Saari plans assassination of the ruler.

Even a well-run Roman house has its deficiencies, believes slave Rick Martson as he mops water from the leaky pool.

Excitement rises in the "Wild World of Sports" boxing match when Jan Runberger drops Bob Pillsbury.

John Latsha receives a "laurel" wreath from slaves Ray Hill and Marlene O'Neil while John Fralich and Miss Caroline Nolen, Latin teacher, enjoy some fruit.

Members of the 1964 Oracle Staff on May 7 attended a Year-book Forum held at Hershey. Pictured in front of the Community Building are D. Stringfellow, A. Boldosser, J. Farner, Miss I. Hoover (adviser), R. Phillips, P. Beecher, A. Hertzler, J. Giselman, A. Fisher.

In a new event this year, Jack Giselman, a member of the boys' free exercise squad, demonstrates a forearm stand.

OPERATION FITNESS: OPERATION SUCCESS

On the still rings Don Warner executes an iron cross, a feat of great strength.

Members of the gym club worked hard in preparation for the fifth annual gym show held Saturday, March 30, before a capacity crowd. Besides practicing every sixth period Monday, they also practiced two evenings a week after school.

The events in the show were girls' free exercises, boys' side horse exercises, boys' still rings, girls' rhythmic exercises, boys' parallel bars, trampoline exhibition, girls' side horse vaulting, girls' balance beam, boys' high bar, and boys' elephant vaulting.

Gary Seibert does a front lever on the still rings, while Coach Nickey and other members who worked on the rings spot.

Circling the high bar proves easy for Leon Wiley.

Girls' Gym Classes Aid in Program

Karen Gallagher does a standing split on the uneven bars which were purchased with the profits from last year's show.

In her performance on the balance beam, Beth Sheaffer does a knee scale.

As William Nickey spots, Shirley Giselman completes a back roll on the balance beam.

Girls' free calisthenics exercises were performed by members of the girls' gym classes.

As Don Eppley looks on, smiling George Thompson receives from Coach William Woods his letter for wrestling.

ATHLETES HONORED AT BANQUET

Substituting for Coach Dave Heckler, Jim Bowers, junior varsity coach, hands Bill Owens his varsity letter for basketball.

Principal Mark Burkhart presents Sue Barrett, a second year cheerleader, her award, a megaphone on a chain.

Administration, coaches, and participants of basketball and wrestling enjoy a well deserved banquet.

SPEAKER URGES FAIR PLAY

Recognition for participation in winter sports was given on March 4, 1963, when a banquet was held in the high school cafeteria to honor the cheerleaders, basketball teams, wrestling teams, coaches, and their helpers behind the scenes. Those participating as basketball players and wrestlers received letters; while cheerleaders received a blazer for three years' service, a megaphone pendant for serving two years, and a letter for serving on the squad one year.

Ted Wagner, assistant executive director of PIAA, spoke on good sportsmanship and fairplay in sports.

Penn Gains District III Title

Larry Sharp jumps high with Alander of Penn.

John Albright fast breaks for the basket.

Ross, no. 34, fouls the Herd's Bill Thumma during a scramble.

After completing the regular season with a good 15-7 record, the Carlisle Thundering Herd moved into the Hershey Sports Arena to play the speedy William Penn Tigers, top dog in the Central Penn League. Penn, with only one loss during the regular season, led most of the first half, but the Herd managed to even the score at 24 all before the half time buzzer sounded. Second half scoring for the Green and White was sporadic, and the Tigers played as if they owned the hardwoods from then on. The final score was 60 to 44.

The Tigers then beat Middletown and Danville but were edged out by the Plymouth Colonials. Plymouth traveled to the state finals and trounced Norwin.

TIGERS BEAT HERD WITH SECOND HALF SURGE

BASEBALL MEN SAY

Coach George Bowen began the year with two lettermen reporting, Rick Kime and Jim Hertzler. However, as the year progressed, the newer members of the squad "blossomed" into fine prospects. John Shearer and Frank Petre were two who developed. After a poor start the team rallied to bring an average record of 6 wins and 7 losses. The lack of experience hurt the squad, but the experience gained will provide Carlisle a threat in future league races. The hitting was led by Pat Hawes and Denny Shank. The pitching was led by John Shearer.

As the mask goes down, catcher Pat Hawes goes up to retrieve a high throw against Cedar Cliff.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS

When the Baby Herd of Coach Dave Heckler closed out its season, the J.V.'s finished with its finest record ever, 5 wins and 2 losses. The Baby Herd won its first 3 games but lost a heartbreaker to Cedar Cliff. After winning its next two games, the Herd again met Cedar Cliff and lost on a homerun in the last inning. The squad was led in hitting by Bill Gordon, .450, and Allen Fisher, .440, among the regulars. Jack Norton led the pitching staff.

1963 TRACK TEAM RACKS UP ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Under the able coaching of Stanley Morgan and his assistant, William Nickey, this year's track team opened the season with three victories to extend to 22 a winning streak spanning several years. But then Steel-High, this year's district champs, took a heart-breaking 63-64 win. The team tied for third place in Class AA at the Shippensburg Invitational Meet, scored wins over Central Dauphin and C.D. East, placed sixth at the Sonny Shephard Relays, and defeated Big Spring. In the last dual meet of the season, the herd lost to John Harris. At the district meet Lenny McLaughlin won the pole vault, Al Owens won the discus, and Bert Nye placed third in the shot.

Amid a cloud of dust, Gary Seibert heaves the javelin.

Easily clearing the bar, Lenny McLaughlin shows how he tied for second place in the state meet.

High jumper Ed Turner shows the proper form in his specialty.

With strength to spare, miler Bob Lee finishes the last lap.

As he comes down the home stretch, Jon Dodson looks happy.

Substituting for the school administration, Dave McAdoo, Gary Shank, and Sue MacDonald seem to be having fun.

SENIORS ENJOY FINAL EVENTS

Embryo teachers were busy on April 5, when the annual Senior Day was celebrated. More than a hundred seniors participated in "their day." A special menu, including cokes, was prepared in the cafeteria in their honor. That evening, seniors and their dates enjoyed a dance sponsored by the Senior Activities Committee.

As they dance down "Memory Lane," Seniors enjoy one of the final activities of their years at CHS.

Enjoying last moments for togetherness, N. Gregor, L. Townsend, M. Ruhl, R. Murtoff, L. Sillers, and B. Lee relax after a swim in the pool at Camp Shand, June 5.

The Rev. Russell M. Weer, who presented the Baccalaureate sermon, waits to give the benediction at Commencement.

The Graduating Class of 1963 sits in anticipation of what is to come.

1963 COMMENCEMENT

To the processional tune, "Pomp and Circumstance," played by Miss Mary McAdoo, CHS librarian, 242 seniors proceeded into the gymnasium for commencement exercises on June 6, 1963. After the Rev. Russell M. Weer, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation, David McAdoo, senior class president, delivered an address, of welcome. The Mixed Senior Ensemble sang several selections. "Life Puts It Up To You" was the topic of guest speaker Dr. Charles C. Noble, Dean at Syracuse University. Following this address Principal Mark N. Burkhart presented the 1963 class; and David L. Swartz, Superintendent of Schools, awarded the diplomas. Commencement closed with the "Alma Mater" and benediction.

With intent interest Beatrice Bear, Mary McDonnell, Linda Townsend, and Alison Hayward listen to Dr. Noble.

"Life Puts It Up To You" Dr. C. C. Noble tells the graduates.

Receiving her diploma and a friendly handshake from David L. Swartz, superintendent, Barb Dutrey smiles while C. Maynard Gillaugh, vice-principal, looks on.

EXERCISES HELD IN CHS GYM

Dale Ehly, another happy recipient of a diploma, shakes Superintendent Swartz's hand.

While Jim Hertzler, Gail Konhaus, and John Rehr enjoy watching their fellow graduates receive diplomas, Sherry Shopp and Larry Nickel admire their own certificates.

Tossing his report card to the wind, Richard Shay, a new member of the junior class, rushes out for a carefree summer.

JUNE BRINGS THE END OF A PERFECT YEAR

Now that graduation is over, Nancy Gregor, winner of the C.A.T.A. Award, sheds a few tears, as she holds her coveted diploma.

Both happiness and sadness mark the end of every school year. The Oracle Staff hopes that through the yearbook and this supplement there have been captured memories that will help the reader recall with nostalgia those precious days of the school year '62-'63.
